Organized in 1932, the Appraisal Institute advocates equal opportunity and nondiscrimination in the appraisal profession and conducts its activities in accordance with applicable federal, state and local laws. ### Ethics & Standards

A keystone on which the organization was founded – and by which it continues to serve the public – is that every member agrees to conduct his or her professional activities in accordance with the Appraisal Institute’s Code of Professional Ethics and Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice. As further evidence of its commitment to ethics and standards, the Appraisal Institute has a highly refined peer review process through which it enforces these standards and Code of Ethics.

Our Designations

The Appraisal Institute confers the prestigious MAI and SRA designations to real property appraisal professionals who have met rigorous requirements relating to education, testing, experience and demonstration of knowledge, understanding and ability.

Appraisers hold the MAI designation that are experienced in the valuation and evaluation of commercial, industrial, residential and other types of properties, and who advise clients on real estate investment decisions.

Real estate solutions providers who are experienced in the analysis and valuation of residential real property hold the SRA designation.

Commitment to Diversity

Diversity brings each of us strength through a broad range of new ideas, experiences and business practices. The Appraisal Institute is committed to promoting diversity within our association – as well as in the real estate profession as a whole – and strives to provide an environment for its members free from discrimination by working to eradicate discrimination and harassment wherever it may be found.

In addition, through its Diversity Committee, the Appraisal Institute offers scholarships, training and advocacy to create a body of appraisers that reflects our diverse environment. For more information on the Appraisal Institute's diversity efforts, visit: <http://www.appraisalinstitute.org/membership/>.
