

Table of Contents

---

About the Author .....	ix
Acknowledgments .....	xi
Foreword .....	xiii
Preface .....	xv
Part I	Conservation and Historic Preservation Easements, the Tax Code, the Yellow Book, and the Real Estate Appraiser
Chapter 1	Conservation and Historic Preservation Easements and the Real Estate Appraiser: An Introduction..... 3
Chapter 2	Conservation and Historic Preservation Easements and the Appraisal Profession: A Brief History ..... 9
Chapter 3	An Overview of Internal Revenue Code Provisions for Conservation and Historic Preservation Easements as Charitable Donations ..... 31
Chapter 4	The “Qualified Appraisal” and the “Qualified Appraiser” ..... 37
Chapter 5	IRS Guidelines for the Appraisal of Conservation and Historic Preservation Easements ..... 45
Part II	General Considerations in Appraising the Conservation and Historic Preservation Easement
Chapter 6	Competency and the Appropriate Assignment Scope and Report Type..... 55
Chapter 7	Essential First Steps: Defining the Property to be Appraised, Reviewing the Easement Document, and Researching the Easement-Holding Organization ..... 73
Chapter 8	Determining Whether the Before and After Method Is Necessary or Even Appropriate ..... 85
Part III	Highest and Best Use Analysis in Conservation and Historic Preservation Easement Appraisal Assignments
Chapter 9	General Considerations in Highest and Best Use Analysis in Easement Appraisals..... 95
Chapter 10	Highest and Best Use Analysis and the Conservation Easement Appraisal: Determining Legally Permissible and Physically Possible Uses Before Considering the Easement..... 103

Chapter 11	Highest and Best Use Analysis and the Historic Preservation Easement Appraisal: Determining Legally Permissible and Physically Possible Uses Before Considering the Easement .....	133
Chapter 12	Highest and Best Use Analysis and Conservation and Historic Preservation Easement Appraisals: Market Analysis and Financially Feasible Uses Before Considering the Easement .....	167
Chapter 13	Highest and Best Use and the Conservation Easement Appraisal After Considering the Easement .....	193
Chapter 14	Highest and Best Use and the Historic Preservation Easement Appraisal After Considering the Easement .....	227
Part IV	Conservation and Historic Preservation Easements and the Sales Comparison Approach to Value
Chapter 15	Conservation Easements and the Sales Comparison Approach: Critical Issues and Appropriate Methodologies .....	249
Chapter 16	Researching, Analyzing, and Adjusting Historic Preservation Easement Sales .....	289
Part V	Conservation and Historic Preservation Easements and the Cost Approach to Value
Chapter 17	The Appropriateness of the Cost Approach in Conservation and Historic Preservation Easement Appraisals: General Considerations .....	323
Chapter 18	Reproduction Cost and Replacement Cost in Conservation and Historic Preservation Easement Appraisal Assignments .....	341
Chapter 19	Consideration of Deterioration and Obsolescence in Conservation and Historic Preservation Easement Appraisal Assignments .....	359
Chapter 20	Land Value, the Cost Approach, and Historic Preservation Easement Appraisals .....	379
Part VI	Conservation and Historic Preservation Easements and the Income Approach to Value
Chapter 21	The Direct Income Capitalization Approach in Historic Preservation and Conservation Easement Appraisals .....	393
Chapter 22	Discounted Cash Flow (DCF) Analysis in Conservation and Historic Preservation Easement Appraisals .....	439
Part VII	Reconciling the Approaches, Checking the Value Conclusion, Analyzing Possible Enhancements, and Reviewing Appraisals
Chapter 23	Reconciling the Results and Consideration of Possible Enhancements and Benefits .....	459
Chapter 24	Using the Case Law to Check the Results and Preparing Review Appraisals in Conservation and Preservation Easement Assignments .....	479
Endnotes	.....	501
Addenda	Sample Conservation Easement .....	553
	Sample Historic Preservation Easement .....	581
	Case Law Citations .....	611
Bibliography	.....	617
Index	.....	635