Marietta's William Anglyn Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (Nov. 9, 2016) – William T. “Ted” Anglyn, MAI, of Marietta, Georgia, was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute’s November “Volunteer of Distinction” for Region IX

The Appraisal Institute is the nation’s largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region IX consists of Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina and Tennessee. Anglyn is a member of the Atlanta Area Chapter.

“Ted Anglyn is an outstanding example of the high standards held by Appraisal Institute professionals,” said Appraisal Institute President Scott Robinson, MAI, SRA, AI-GRS. “We feel fortunate to have volunteers like Ted, who are willing to devote their time and talent to helping their communities and advancing the valuation profession.”

Anglyn served as a member of the national Nominating Committee (2010), Finance Committee (2005-06), 717 Business Model Committee (2003-04), Nominating Committee Alternates (2004), Board of Directors (2000), Board of Directors Liaison of the Seminars Subcommittee (2000), Seminars Division Committee (1998-99) and chair of the Youth Advisory Council (1997), vice chair (1996), discussion leader (1995) and member (1992, 1994). He also served on the General Appraiser Board Demonstration Reports Subcommittee (1993-96), Anglyn has served the Atlanta Area Chapter as president (1999), vice president (1998), secretary (1997) and treasurer, chair of the Education Committee and chair of the Finance Committee (1996). Anglyn joined a predecessor organization of the Appraisal Institute in 1982, and received his MAI designation in 1989.

He has been president of Parking Property Advisors, located in Atlanta and Miami, since 2009, and has been in the valuation profession for 35 years. He received a bachelor’s degree in finance from Auburn University in Auburn, Alabama.

Anglyn has written five seminar books for AI, as well as numerous articles that have appeared in valuation publications including The Appraisal Journal.

Anglyn's volunteer activities include serving at Hampton Elementary School and Habitat for Humanity of Cobb County; being a sponsor of Nurses Week at Grady Memorial Hospital and the Joseph Ferry Baptist Church Middle School Choir. He is a member of the Parking Consultant Council with the National Parking Association, and is a founding board member of the Buckhead (Carl Sanders) YMCA.
