San Marino's Scott D. Delahooke Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (Dec. 9, 2015) – Scott D. Delahooke, MAI, SRA, of San Marino, California, was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute's December "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region VII.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region VII consists of Arizona, Hawaii, southern California and southern Nevada. Delahooke is a member of the Southern California Chapter

"Scott Delahooke is an outstanding representative of the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President M. Lance Coyle, MAI, SRA. "We are fortunate to work with dedicated volunteers like Scott, who devote their time and energy to advancing the real estate valuation profession in their communities."

Delahooke has served the Southern California Chapter as Candidate Guidance Committee chair in 2000, Admission Committee - General and Residential chair in 1996, and on the Young Advisory Council in 1986 and 1989. He also served as president and on the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles Chapter of the Society of Real Estate Appraisers, a predecessor organization of the Appraisal Institute. He also has taught Appraisal Institute courses, and co-chaired multiple chapter merger panels. Delahooke received his SRA designation in 1985 and his MAI designation in 1993.

Delahooke is the owner of the Delahooke Appraisal Company in Arcadia, California. He has worked in the valuation profession for 34 years.

Delahooke's volunteer experience includes coaching girls' soccer, Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Los Angeles, serving as a mentor at the Hillside Home for Children, being a trustee at the Pasadena Presbyterian Church and serving on the Citizens Oversight Committee overseeing construction of a new school.

Delahooke and his wife have three daughters.
