Moreno Valley's Robert R. King Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (June 3, 2015) – Robert R. King, SRA, of Moreno Valley, California, was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute's June "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region VII.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region VII consists of Arizona, Hawaii, southern California and southern Nevada. King is a member of the Southern California Chapter.

"Robert King is an outstanding representative of the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President M. Lance Coyle, MAI, SRA. "We are fortunate to work with dedicated volunteers like Bob, who devote their time and energy to advancing the real estate valuation profession in their communities."

King serves on the Education Committee for the Southern California Chapter, and was its regional representative from 2012-14. In 2014, he served on the chapter's Nominating Committee and in 2013 was a member of the national Leadership Development and Advisory Council.

King has taught numerous appraisal classes, advises designation candidates and mentors appraisal trainees. He received his SRA designation in 2011.

He is the owner of Del Rey Appraisal Services in Moreno Valley. King received his bachelor's degree in engineering at California Polytechnic University – Pomona, and his master's degree in engineering management from West Coast University in Los Angeles.

King volunteers for various charity-related events including those for Susan G. Komen, the Muscular Dystrophy Association and the Riverside National Cemetery.

King and his wife, Diana, have been married for 24 years.
