Pittsboro's Mark R. Rattermann Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (March 4, 2015) – Mark R. Rattermann, MAI, SRA, of Pittsboro, Indiana, was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute's March "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region V.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region V consists of Indiana, Kentucky, North Carolina, Ohio, Virginia and West Virginia. Rattermann is a member of the Hoosier State Chapter.

"Mark Rattermann is an outstanding representative of the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President M. Lance Coyle, MAI, SRA. "We are fortunate to work with dedicated volunteers like Mark, who devote their time and energy to advancing the real estate valuation profession in their communities."

Rattermann is the government relations chair for the Hoosier State Chapter. He was education chair from 2007-2011, and regional representative from 2009-10. Rattermann is an instructor, having written and taught many Appraisal Institute educational offerings. He has written eight books and many articles on real estate topics.

Rattermann was appointed by Indiana Governor Mike Pence to serve on the state's Appraiser's Board, and he has been elected to the City Council of Carmel, Indiana.

Rattermann is a partner with Indiana Valuation in Indianapolis. He has been involved in the real estate valuation profession for 35 years and serves on many committees on both the Chapter and Regional levels. He holds a bachelor's degree in business from the Indiana University in Bloomington, Ind. Rattermann has been married to his wife, Jeanine, for 30 years.
