Sewell's Edward Molinari Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (April 6, 2016) – Edward Molinari, SRA, of Sewell, New Jersey, was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute's April "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region VI.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region VI consists of Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Washington, D.C. Molinari is a member of the Southern New Jersey Chapter.

"Ed Molinari is an outstanding example of the high standards held by Appraisal Institute professionals," said Appraisal Institute President Scott Robinson, MAI, SRA, AI-GRS. "We feel fortunate to have volunteers like Ed, who are willing to devote their time and talent to helping their communities and advancing the valuation profession."

Since 2015, Molinari has served the Southern New Jersey Chapter as president, a position he also held in 2002. From 2009-14, he served as alternate regional representative. Molinari was chapter secretary and chair of the Candidate Guidance Committee in 2014; vice president and chair of the Public Relations Committee in 2001; second vice president in 2000; chair of the Education Committee from 1999-2000; and treasurer and chair of the Finance Committee in 1999. He also has served on the national Education Committee since 2015 and from 2007-08, Nominating Committee in 2009, Regional Educational Liaisons Subcommittee in 2004 and Continuing Education Committee from 2003-04. He joined a predecessor organization of the Appraisal Institute in 1988, and received his SRA designation in 1991.

Molinari taught a supervisory appraisal course, and Basic Appraisal Procedures in Saudi Arabia. He serves as an advisor to three SRA Candidates for Designation.

Molinari is the president of Molinari & Associates, P.C., located in Woodbury, New Jersey, and has been in the valuation profession for 30 years. He received a bachelor's degree in economics from Rowen University, located in Glassboro, New Jersey.

Among his volunteer activities are being a member of Rotary International, the Greater Woodbury Chamber of Commerce and serving on the Gloucester County Italian Heritage Committee.

Molinari and his wife, Maryjane, have three children.
