

The Appraisal Journal Sponsorship

Align with the most well-known and highly respected journal amongst real estate appraisers!

The Appraisal Journal is a scholarly publication that features articles written by the best and brightest in the valuation profession.

It was instituted in 1932 (almost 85 years ago) as a forum for discussion of the latest thinking on valuation and to encourage the pursuit of professional excellence. Today, the Journal is read by nearly 24,000 Appraisal Institute professionals and subscribers in the United States and around the world.

Support of The Appraisal Journal can be pledged via sponsorship of three awards each year to recognize editorial excellence in this hallmark publication:

ARMSTRONG/KAHN AWARD	SWANGO AWARD	RATCLIFF AWARD
Most outstanding article	Best article by a practitioner	Outstanding article by an academic
2014 recipient: "Qualitative Analyses in the Sales Comparison Approach Revisited," Gene Rhodes, MAI	Past recipients include professionals from Cushman & Wakefield	Past recipients include authors from University of North Carolina and Temple University
