

Save the Date

For the Appraisal Institute's
2020 Annual Conference

Plan your summer now and join us at the JW Marriott in Orlando for this year's AI Annual Conference. Last year more than 500 attendees networked with domestic and international peers at our Denver event. This year's conference promises to be better than ever.

It's the valuation profession's biggest event of the year where you will:

- Meet real estate professionals from a wide variety of practices
- Learn about exciting valuation topics from recognized experts
- Participate in the opening night reception
- Attend the fun and casual closing night dinner
- Earn state and AI continuing education credit
- Hear about the latest valuation products and services

Join us! Online registration begins March 25.
