The 2010 Washington Appraisal Summit is a great chance for you to *Capitalize at the Capitol!

This July, the Appraisal Institute will host its fifth Appraisal Summit in Washington. This two-day event at our nation's capital will be a unique opportunity to not only come together and discuss legislative changes shaping the appraisal profession, but to also ADVERTISE your business!

This year's theme of "Elevating the Appraisal Profession through Understanding, Awareness and Involvement" means you will be advertising to a captive audience focused on advancing the appraisal profession. Attendees will include valuation professionals from all over the country, users of appraisal services and other real estate professionals. With nearly 50 panel sessions, the breadth of audience exposure is limitless.
