

Advisory Guidance for Associate Members

All Associate Members have the opportunity to request the Advisory Guidance option. It will provide you with the opportunity to have an independent and helpful evaluation of your work. The intent is educational; to provide counseling and ultimately help you understand some of the requirements for apply for Experience Credit. There is no fee, however; you must submit an application to apply for this option. The application should be accompanied by the reports you have chosen to be considered.

- A general Associate Member may choose two (2) reports for consideration.
- A residential Associate Member may choose five (5) reports for consideration.

During Advisory Guidance, a selection Experience Panel member will consider your sample work, and provide you with feedback and counseling. You will choose the reports for this process. You may consider choosing a standard report for general feedback, or you may consider choosing a specialty property report to receive specific input.

You may choose the Advisory Guidance process at any time prior to submitting application for Experience Credit. The work chosen for Advisory Guidance cannot be chosen as the subject for Experience Credit consideration, however; the hours can apply for this credit.
