Cedar Hill's Jerry Fulwiler Honored as Appraisal Institute 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (April 4, 2018) – Jerry L. Fulwiler, MAI, of Cedar Hill, Texas, was recognized today as an Appraisal Institute "Volunteer of Distinction" for first quarter 2018.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers. Fulwiler is a member of the North Texas Chapter.

The Appraisal Institute's Volunteer of Distinction program honors the organization's volunteers for their service to the Appraisal Institute, to the real estate valuation profession and to their local communities. Each quarter, the Appraisal Institute recognizes AI professionals who have been nominated by their fellow AI professionals.

"Jerry Fulwiler has been a great contributor to the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President James L. Murrett, MAI, SRA. "We are grateful for the time, effort and talent of volunteers like Jerry who have devoted themselves to the betterment of our organization, the valuation profession and their local communities."

Fulwiler was co-chair of the North Texas Chapter's Symposium Committee in 2017 and 2018. Last year, the North Texas Realty Symposium set records for attendance and sponsorship.

Fulwiler joined the Appraisal Institute in 1992, and received his MAI designation in 1998.

He has been senior director, Industrial Hospitality and Gaming, for Cushman & Wakefield in Dallas since 2007, and has been in the valuation profession for more than 25 years. He received a bachelor's degree in agricultural economics from Texas A&M University in College Station, and an MBA from the University of Texas at Arlington.
