Jackson's Clint C. Dorris Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (Oct. 4, 2017) – Clint C. Dorris, SRA, of Jackson, Tennessee, was recognized today as an Appraisal Institute third quarter "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region IX

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region IX consists of Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina and Tennessee. Dorris is a member of the Memphis-Tennessee Chapter.

"Clint Dorris has shown a great commitment to the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President & Acting CEO Jim Amorin, MAI, SRA, AI-GRS. "We are proud to have volunteers like Clint who have dedicated themselves to the advancement of our organization, the valuation profession and their local communities."

Dorris serves as president of the Memphis-Tennessee Chapter. He was vice president, Board member and regional representative in 2016. He is a member at large of the national Diversity Committee, and participated in the Leadership Development Advisory Council Conference in 2016. Dorris joined the Appraisal Institute in 2009, and received his SRA designation in 2014.

He has been a certified residential appraiser with Bruce Dorris Appraisals in Jackson since 2004, and has been in the valuation profession for 18 years. He received a bachelor's degree in professional studies from the University of Memphis.

Among his community activities, Dorris is on the assimilation team at his local church, is a founding member of the Jackson Area Real Estate Investors Association, volunteered at the Boys Club, has been the president, vice president and secretary for the Vann Gardens Neighborhood Association and volunteered for charity events that benefit YoungLife, the Flags of Freedom, the Carl Perkins Center for the Prevention of Child Abuse and Youth Town. He also gives presentations to first-time homebuyers.

Dorris and his wife, Brooke, have two daughters, Eliza and Kate Carver.
