Sugar Hill's Alex Rubin Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (Jan. 3, 2018) – Alexander B. Rubin, MAI, AI-GRS, of Sugar Hill, Georgia, was recognized today as an Appraisal Institute fourth quarter "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region IX.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region IX consists of Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina and Tennessee. Rubin is a member of the Atlanta Area Chapter.

"Alex Rubin has been a great contributor to the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President James L. Murrett, MAI, SRA. "We are grateful for the time, effort and talent of volunteers like Alex who have devoted themselves to the betterment of our organization, the valuation profession and their local communities."

Rubin previously served the Atlanta Area Chapter as a member of the Education Committee in 2012 and co-chair in 2009; president in 2003; vice president in 2002; secretary in 2001; treasurer and chair of the Finance Committee in 2000; regional representative from 1997-98; and chair of the Government Relations Committee in 1996. He also served on the national Admissions Committee. Rubin was an attendee of the Leadership Development Advisory Council Conference in 2000, and has served as an instructor for multiple Appraisal Institute courses.

He joined a predecessor organization of the Appraisal Institute in 1990, received his MAI designation in 1992 and his AI-GRS designation in 2015.

Rubin has been the owner of Alex Rubin & Co. in Norcross since he founded the company in 1993, and has been in the valuation profession for 30 years. He received a bachelor's degree from Georgia State University in Atlanta.

Among his community activities, he took part in Career Day at Sycamore Elementary School and likes to spend time with his two grandchildren.
