San Juan's Enrique T. Casado Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (Aug. 5, 2015) – Enrique “Henry” T. Casado, MAI, SRA, AI-GRS, AI-RRS, of San Juan, Puerto Rico, was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute’s August “Volunteer of Distinction” for Region X.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation’s largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region X consists of Florida and Puerto Rico. Ball is a member of the Puerto Rico and Caribbean Chapter.

“Enrique Casado is an outstanding representative of the Appraisal Institute,” said Appraisal Institute President M. Lance Coyle, MAI, SRA. “We are fortunate to work with dedicated volunteers like Enrique, who devote their time and energy to advancing the real estate valuation profession in their communities.”

Casado is the Education Committee chair for the Puerto Rico and Caribbean Chapter. In 2014, he served as chair of the chapter’s Nominating Committee; Public Relations Committee; External Relations Committee; Bylaws Committee; and Client Advisory Committee. Casado also has served as alternate regional representative (2013-15), chapter president (2012-13) and director (2008-10).

He is a director of the Appraisal Institute Relief Foundation and served on the national University Relations Panel and Comprehensive Exam Panel for Reviewer Designation. He received his SRA designation in 2007, and his MAI, AI-GRS and AI-RRS designations in 2015.

For 10 years, Casado has written valuation-related articles for local publications and publishes an area survey, Property Economics and Intelligence. He has mentored several designated members. On holidays, Casado and his daughter, Isabelle, bring gifts to children in foster homes and hospitals.

He is an appraiser with Casado PSC Property Economics in Guaynabo, Puerto Rico. Casado received his master’s degree in valuation from Johns Hopkins University, in Baltimore.
