Sewell's Albert Crosby Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (May 4, 2016) – Albert R. Crosby, MAI, of Sewell, New Jersey, was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute's May "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region VI.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region VI consists of Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Washington, D.C. Crosby is a member of the Southern New Jersey Chapter.

"Albert Crosby is an outstanding example of the high standards held by Appraisal Institute professionals," said Appraisal Institute President Scott Robinson, MAI, SRA, AI-GRS. "We feel fortunate to have volunteers like Albert, who are willing to devote their time and talent to helping their communities and advancing the valuation profession."

Crosby serves the Southern New Jersey Chapter as the alternate regional representative. He was treasurer and chair of the Finance Committee from 2013-15, and secretary in 2012. He participated in the Leadership Development Advisory Council for three years, and has mentored two Candidates for Designation. Crosby joined the Appraisal Institute in 2003, and received his MAI designation in 2014.

Crosby has been a senior valuation specialist at Colliers International Valuation and Advisory Services in Philadelphia since 2014, and has been in the valuation profession for 13 years. He received a bachelor's degree in accounting from Elon University, in Elon, North Carolina.

His volunteer activities include serving on the Washington Township Soccer Board, and coaching youth baseball and soccer. Crosby is active in his church, teaching a Sunday school class for teens and is a member of the Men's Ministry. He is a past board president of Hometown Opportunities for the Mentally Handicapped.

Crosby and his wife, Bonnie, have three children.
