Boca Raton's Trisha Guarnieri Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (June 8, 2016) – Trisha P. Guarnieri, MAI, AI-GRS, of Boca Raton, Florida, was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute's June "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region X.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region X consists of Florida and Puerto Rico. Guarnieri is a member of the South Florida Chapter.

"Trisha Guarnieri is an outstanding example of the high standards held by Appraisal Institute professionals," said Appraisal Institute President Scott Robinson, MAI, SRA, AI-GRS. "We feel fortunate to have volunteers like Trisha, who are willing to devote their time and talent to helping their communities and advancing the valuation profession."

Guarnieri is the South Florida Chapter's regional representative, a position she has held since 2012. She was chair of the chapter's Nominating Committee in 2015, president in 2014, vice president in 2013 and treasurer and chair of the Finance Committee in 2012. She also attended the national Leadership and Development Advisory Council, and has mentored several valuation professionals. Guarnieri joined the Appraisal Institute in 1994, received her MAI designation in 2006 and her AI-GRS designation in 2016.

She has been a real estate review appraiser at City National Bank in Miami since 2015, and has been in the valuation profession for 23 years. Guarnieri received a bachelor's degree in business administration from Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Virginia.

Her volunteer activities include serving on the Fellowship/Hospitality committee for St. Paul's Lutheran Church, serving as support staff for Boca Raton ROTC activities and volunteering for the Dolphin Cancer Challenge.

Guarnieri has two sons.
