Gettysburg's R. Scott Hartman Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (Nov. 4, 2015) – R. Scott Hartman, SRA, of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute's November "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region VI.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region VI consists of Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Washington, D.C. Hartman is a member of the Central Pennsylvania Chapter.

"Scott Hartman is an outstanding representative of the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President M. Lance Coyle, MAI, SRA. "We are fortunate to work with dedicated volunteers like Scott, who devote their time and energy to advancing the real estate valuation profession in their communities."

Hartman has served the Central Pennsylvania Chapter as vice president and Government Relations Committee chair since 2014, and is chair of the Coalition of Pennsylvania Real Estate Appraisers. In 2014, he was a member of the national Leadership Development & Advisory Council. Hartman received his SRA designation in 2014.

He also is approved to teach the Appraisal Institute course, Business Practices and Ethics.

Hartman is the vice president -valuation and consulting services with Wm. A. Bingham, Inc., in Gettysburg. He has worked in the valuation profession for more than 25 years.

Hartman's volunteer experience include membership in the Harrisburg Consistory, the Adams County Shrine Club, the National Rifle Association, Ducks Unlimited, Quail Unlimited, the American Trapshooting Association, USA Shooting and USA Triathlon. He also has served as a ride master/ride coordinator for the annual Face of America Wounded Warrior Bicycle Ride from Washington, D.C. to Gettysburg.
