Alhambra's Jennifer Hsu Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (Oct. 5, 2016) – Jennifer Hsu, MAI, of Alhambra, California, was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute's October "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region VII.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region VII consists of Arizona, Hawaii, southern California and southern Nevada. Hsu is a member of the Southern California Chapter.

"Jennifer Hsu is an outstanding example of the high standards held by Appraisal Institute professionals," said Appraisal Institute President Scott Robinson, MAI, SRA, AI-GRS. "We feel fortunate to have volunteers like Jennifer, who are willing to devote their time and talent to helping their communities and advancing the valuation profession."

Hsu serves on the Southern California Chapter's Nominating Committee, and as chair of the chapter's Eastern Branch. She previously served on the chapter's Public Relations Committee. She joined the Appraisal Institute in 2003, and received her MAI designation in 2012.

She is an Appraisal Institute Candidate Advisor.

Hsu has been a vice president at CBRE, located in Los Angeles, since 2015, and has been in the valuation profession for 16 years. She received a bachelor's degree from Cornell University School of Hotel Administration, in Ithaca, New York.

Hsu's volunteer activities include serving on the Cornell Alumni Admissions Ambassadors Network.
