Seattle's Todd Henderson Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (June 7, 2017) – Todd R. Henderson, MAI, AI-GRS, of Seattle, was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute's June "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region I.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region I consists of Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Washington, northern California, northern Nevada and British Columbia, Canada. Henderson is a member of the Seattle Chapter.

"Todd Henderson has shown a great commitment to the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President Jim Amorin, MAI, SRA, AI-GRS. "We are proud to have volunteers like Todd who have dedicated themselves to the advancement of our organization, the valuation profession and their local communities."

Henderson serves on the Seattle Chapter Board of Directors, and has been on the Education Committee since 2016. He served the chapter as regional representative from 2015-16; co-chair of the Fall Conference Committee from 2014-17 and a member of the Conference Committee in 2011 and 2013. He participated in the national Leadership and Advisory Council conference from 2012-14, and has been an advisor to multiple Candidates for Designation. Henderson joined the Appraisal Institute in 2005, received his MAI designation in 2011 and his AI-GRS designation in 2015.

Henderson is the director of CBRE Valuation and Advisory Services, located in Seattle.

Henderson's volunteer activities have included serving on two boards in an executive capacity; serving as the facility manager at a local church and doing on-call maintenance for another church and coaching a youth soccer team.
