Carolina's Luis Delgado-Robles Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (Oct. 8, 2014) – Luis F. Delgado-Robles, Candidate for Designation, of Carolina, Puerto Rico, was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute's October "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region X.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region X consists of Florida and Puerto Rico. Delgado-Robles is a member of the Puerto Rico and Caribbean Chapter.

"Luis Delgado-Robles is an exceptional ambassador for the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President Ken P. Wilson, MAI, SRA. "We're proud to be represented by individuals like Luis, who faithfully serve our organization and the real estate valuation profession, as well as their local communities."

Delgado-Robles has served on the Puerto Rico Chapter Government Relations Committee since 2008 and is 2014 committee chair. He was Puerto Rico Chapter vice president in 2013, secretary from 2010-12 and chapter director from 2006-09. He attended the Appraisal Institute's Leadership Development and Advisory Council meeting in 2009-10 and 2014. He has served on a variety of chapter committees.

Delgado-Robles has been president and head appraiser at Appraisal Consulting Group PSC since 2008. He has been involved in the real estate valuation profession for 20 years. He joined the Appraisal Institute in 1999, and became a Candidate for Designation in 2013.

He serves on the Board of Directors of his homeowners association and is active with his town's Office of Planning on issues affecting the community. He participates in several activities at his son's school, as well as youth tournaments and family activities at his community tennis club.

He is married to Marlin Baretto Cortez, Practicing Affiliate, and has one son, Fernando.
