Centennial's William M. Rinner Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (March 9, 2016) – William M. “Mike” Rinner, MAI, AI-GRS, of Centennial, Colorado, was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute’s March “Volunteer of Distinction” for Region II.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation’s largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region II consists of Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Utah and Wyoming, as well as the Canadian provinces of Manitoba and Saskatchewan. Rinner is a member of the Colorado Chapter.

“Mike Rinner is an outstanding example of the high standards held by Appraisal Institute professionals,” said Appraisal Institute President Scott Robinson, MAI, SRA, AI-GRS. “We feel fortunate to have volunteers like Mike, who are willing to devote their time and talent to helping their communities and advancing the valuation profession.”

Rinner served the Colorado Chapter as regional representative from 2004-09, and chair of the Education Committee from 2002-03. He also was a member of the Kansas Chapter of a predecessor organization of the Appraisal Institute where he served as president, vice president, secretary and chair of the Education Committee. Rinner joined the predecessor organization of AI in 1975 and received his MAI designation in 1983.

As an adjunct professor, he has taught appraisal classes at Washburn University, located in Topeka, Kansas.

Rinner is senior vice president – advisory at Meyers Research, LLC, located in Lone Tree, Colorado, and has been in the valuation profession for more than 30 years.

Among his volunteer activities are serving as an advisor for Junior Achievement, coaching youth baseball and basketball and serving as a gospel reading lector and religious instructor for a church youth group.

Rinner and his wife, Janet, have three children and four grandchildren.
