Alamo's Terry Larson Honored as Appraisal Institute 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (July 12, 2018) – Terry S. Larson, MAI, of Alamo, California, was recognized today as an Appraisal Institute "Volunteer of Distinction" for second quarter 2018.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers. Larson is a member of the Northern California Chapter.

The Appraisal Institute's Volunteer of Distinction program honors the organization's volunteers for their service to the Appraisal Institute, to the real estate valuation profession and to their local communities. Each quarter, the Appraisal Institute recognizes AI professionals who have been nominated by their fellow AI professionals.

"Terry Larson has been a great contributor to the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President James L. Murrett, MAI, SRA. "We are grateful for the time, effort and talent of volunteers like Terry who have devoted themselves to the betterment of our organization, the valuation profession and their local communities."

Larson served as a member of the Northern California Chapter's Nominating Committee in 2016, and on the board of directors from 2014-16. He served as chair of the Commercial Symposium, Unique Properties from 2016-17, and a member of the Spring Litigation Conference, Subsurface Easement in 2013.

Larson has presented at events hosted by organizations including the International Right of Way Association and the American Association of Airport Executives.

Larson joined a predecessor organization of the Appraisal Institute in 1984, and received his MAI designation in 1996.

He has been partner at Smith and Associates in Danville, California, since 1997. He received a bachelor's degree from the University of Oregon.
