

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 12, 2018

For more information:

Brent Roberts

312-335-4441

broberts@appraisalinstitute.org

Rockwall's James Rohrig Honored as Appraisal Institute 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (July 12, 2018) – James A. Rohrig, MAI, of Rockwall, Texas, was recognized today as an Appraisal Institute "Volunteer of Distinction" for second quarter 2018.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers. Rohrig is a member of the North Texas Chapter.

The Appraisal Institute's Volunteer of Distinction program honors the organization's volunteers for their service to the Appraisal Institute, to the real estate valuation profession and to their local communities. Each quarter, the Appraisal Institute recognizes AI professionals who have been nominated by their fellow AI professionals.

"James Rohrig has been a great contributor to the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President James L. Murrett, MAI, SRA. "We are grateful for the time, effort and talent of volunteers like James who have devoted themselves to the betterment of our organization, the valuation profession and their local communities."

Rohrig is chair of the Nominating Committee for the North Texas Chapter, has served on the Education Committee since 2017, Realty Symposium Committee since 2014 and on the board of directors since 2011. He previously served as president in 2017, Finance Committee member from 2013-17, vice president in 2016, Programs Committee member and regional representative from 2015-16, secretary in 2015, Candidate Guidance Committee member from 2013-15 and treasurer and Finance Committee chair in 2014..

Rohrig joined the Appraisal Institute in 2006, and received his MAI designation in 2008.

He is a member of the Real Estate Financial Executives Association, co-authored the article "Highest and Best Use in Eminent Domain Valuation" which was presented at the 2007 CLE International Eminent Domain Conference, authored the article "Real Estate Valuation in Condemnation" which was published in the June 2013 issue of The Commercial Real Estate Network magazine and "LEED Certification and the Appraisal Process" which was published in the magazine's September 2011 issue.

He has been senior director- Valuation & Advisory Practice Group/Dispute Analysis & Litigation Support for Cushman & Wakefield of Texas, Inc. since 2012. He received a bachelor's degree from Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio.

Rohrig prepared nonprofit organizations' paperwork and taxes in his role as a CPA. He also volunteers at the Girls and Boys Club, the Dallas Food Bank and Dallas Public Radio.

Stay connected with the latest news from the Appraisal Institute on Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, YouTube and our blog, Opinions of Value.

The Appraisal Institute is a global professional association of real estate appraisers, with more than 18,000 professionals in nearly 50 countries throughout the world. Its mission is to advance professionalism and ethics, global standards, methodologies, and practices through the professional development of property economics worldwide. Organized in 1932, the Appraisal Institute advocates equal opportunity and nondiscrimination in the appraisal profession and conducts its activities in accordance with applicable federal, state and local laws. Individuals of the Appraisal Institute benefit from an array of professional education and advocacy programs, and may hold the prestigious MAI, SRPA, SRA, AI-GRS and AI-RRS designations. Learn more at www.appraisalinstitute.org.

###