San Diego's Trevor Hubbard Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (Aug. 6, 2014) – Trevor Hubbard, MAI, SRA, of San Diego, California, was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute's August "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region VII.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region VII consists of Central California, Hawaii, Las Vegas, Phoenix, San Diego, Southern Arizona and Southern California. Hubbard is a member of the San Diego Chapter.

"Trevor Hubbard is an exceptional ambassador for the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President Ken P. Wilson, MAI, SRA. "We're proud to be represented by individuals like Trevor, who faithfully serve our organization and the real estate valuation profession, as well as their local communities."

Hubbard currently serves the Appraisal Institute as a member of the national Diversity Committee. He also serves the San Diego Chapter as secretary, a member of the Finance Committee and the California Government Relations Subcommittee. He has been an alternate regional representative for the chapter since 2012, chair of the Candidate Guidance Committee in 2013 and Associate Guidance Committee chair in 2012. He previously was a member of the chapter Board of Directors and has served as an advisor to three Candidates for Designation.

Additionally, Hubbard was a significant contributor to advocacy efforts for the valuation profession, including the successful passage of California's Assembly Bill 1888, which made California a full disclosure state.

Hubbard has been a senior appraiser at Jones, Roach and Caringella, Inc., in San Diego since 2005. He has been involved in the real estate valuation profession for eight years. He holds a bachelor's degree in real estate finance from Southern Methodist University and a master's degree in real estate from the University of San Diego. He joined the Appraisal Institute in 2006 and received his MAI and SRA designations in 2010.

Hubbard is married to Dr. Ignatius Nip.
