Chicago's Clinton J. Wallace Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (Dec. 9, 2015) – Clinton “Joe” Wallace, MAI, of Chicago, was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute’s December “Volunteer of Distinction” for Region III.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation’s largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region III consists of Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota and Wisconsin. Wallace is a member of the Chicago Chapter.

“Joe Wallace is an outstanding representative of the Appraisal Institute,” said Appraisal Institute President M. Lance Coyle, MAI, SRA. “We are fortunate to work with dedicated volunteers like Joe, who devote their time and energy to advancing the real estate valuation profession in their communities.”

Wallace has been an instructor for the Chicago Chapter since 2010, participated on a panel discussion in 2015 and served on the chapter’s Board of Directors from 2006-08. He also was a participant in the national Leadership Development and Advisory Council from 2006-08. Wallace joined the Appraisal Institute in 2001, and received his MAI designation in 2007.

He has been mentoring an MAI candidate for designation since 2014.

Wallace is the owner of PF Appraisals, Inc., in Chicago. He has worked in the valuation profession for 14 years. He received a bachelor’s degree in business from North Central College, in Naperville, Illinois; a bachelor’s degree in engineering from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign; and an MBA from Northwestern University Kellogg School of Management, in Evanston, Illinois.

Wallace’s volunteer experience includes serving as the local school council chair and the Fundraising Committee chair for the charity, Field of Dreams.
