Fort Lauderdale's Gregg Brown Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (Dec. 5, 2012) – Gregg A. Brown, MAI, SRA, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute's December "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region X.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region X consists of Florida, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. Brown is a member of the South Florida Chapter.

"Gregg Brown is an excellent ambassador for the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President Sara W. Stephens, MAI. "We're privileged to have members like Gregg who actively contribute to the real estate valuation profession and to their local communities every day."

Brown served as South Florida Chapter president in 2005, vice president in 2004, second vice president in 2003, secretary in 2002 and treasurer in 2001. He has also served on a number of committees. He became a member of the Appraisal Institute in 1980, received his SRA designation in 1981 and his MAI designation in 1990.

He is president of Brown Valuation Services, Inc. in Pompano Beach. He has been involved in the real estate valuation profession for 36 years.

Brown served on the Special Magistrate Broward County Value Adjustment Board from 1982 – 2010. He also volunteers as the guitarist for First Baptist Church Pompano.

He has been married for 20 years and has one son.
