Albuquerque's Richard F. Hix Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (May 6, 2015) – Richard F. Hix, Practicing Affiliate, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute's May "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region VIII.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region VIII consists of New Mexico and Texas. Hix is a member of the Rio Grande Chapter.

"Richard Hix is an outstanding representative of the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President M. Lance Coyle, MAI, SRA. "We are fortunate to work with dedicated volunteers like Richard, who devote their time and energy to advancing the real estate valuation profession in their communities."

Hix has been chair of the Rio Grande Chapter's Government Relations Committee since 2012. He is the owner of Hix Appraisal Services in Albuquerque, and has worked in the valuation profession since 1986.

He currently serves on the City of Albuquerque Zoning Board of Appeals, and has been appointed by the mayor to serve on various other committees. Hix is a member and past officer of the Vista del Norte Homeowners Association and its Architectural Committee.
