Elkhart's Iverson C. Grove Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (Jan. 11, 2012) – Iverson C. Grove, MAI, SRA, of Elkhart, Ind., was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute's January "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region V.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region V consists of Indiana, Kentucky, North Carolina, Ohio, Virginia and West Virginia. Grove is a member of the Northern Indiana/Southwest Michigan Chapter.

"Iverson C. Grove is an excellent ambassador for the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President Sara W. Stephens, MAI. "We're privileged to have members like Iverson who actively contribute to the real estate valuation profession and in their local communities every day."

Grove serves on the Northern Indiana/Southwest Michigan Chapter's Membership Admissions, Development and Retention Committee (since 2003) and as associate guidance chair general and residential (since 2009), served as alternate regional representative in 2010, admissions chair in 2010, 2007 and 1998-1999, education chair in 2008, regional representative in 2006, chapter president in 2005-2006, 2001 and 1989-1990, chapter vice president in 2004 and 2000, regional representative in 2004, candidate guidance chair general and residential in 2003 and 1999, government relations chair in 2003, second vice president in 1999, chair of the Appraisal Institute's Residential Appraiser Council Guidance Subcommittee from 1996-1997, vice chair in 1995 and subcommittee member from 1993-1995. He became a member of the Appraisal Institute in 1990, earned his SRA designation in 1988 and his MAI designation in 1996.

He served on multiple committees for the Indiana Association of Realtors and the Elkhart County Board of Realtors, and on the County Board of Elkhart County. He developed a class on tax appeal in the state of Indiana and served as a reviewer for the Indiana Office of the Attorney General.

He is owner of Iverson Grove Real Estate Appraising Corporation in Elkhart, Ind., and has been involved in the real estate valuation industry for 31 years.
