Tulsa's Suzanne Bloyed Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (Jan. 9, 2013) – Suzanne K. Bloyed, SRA, of Tulsa, Okla., was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute's January "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region II.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region II consists of Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Utah and Wyoming, as well as Manitoba and Saskatchewan, Canada. Bloyed is a member of the Green Country of Oklahoma Chapter.

"Suzanne Bloyed is an outstanding representative for the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President Richard L. Borges II, MAI, SRA. "We're proud to have individuals like Suzanne who continuously strive to advance the valuation profession while also serving their local communities."

Bloyed is 2013 Green Country of Oklahoma Chapter Nominating Committee Chair. She served as chapter president from 2010-2011 and 2002-2004, as well as on a number of committees. She became a member of the Appraisal Institute and received her SRA designation in 1982.

She has been owner/appraiser at Bloyed Residential Appraisers, LLC in Tulsa since 1980. She has been involved in the real estate valuation profession for more than 30 years. She holds a bachelor's degree from Oklahoma State University in Stillwater.

Herndon is a member of Tulsa Executives, a business referral organization. She is active at First United Methodist Church in Tulsa, and is a member of the One in The Spirit Class, which prepares and distributes food to those who are ill, having surgery or funerals. She serves on the North Tulsa Young Life Board, where she has volunteered for more than 30 years. She teaches appraising at several local real estate companies in Tulsa and speaks at national relocation appraisal conferences.

She has been married for 39 years and has two sons.
