Los Angeles' Tupper Lienke Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (May 8, 2013) – Tupper W. Lienke, MAI, of Los Angeles, was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute's May "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region VII.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region VII includes Arizona, Hawaii, Southern California and Southern Nevada. Lienke is a member of the Southern California Chapter.

"Tupper Lienke is an outstanding representative for the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President Richard L. Borges II, MAI, SRA. "We're proud to have individuals like Tupper who continuously strive to advance the valuation profession while also serving their local communities."

Lienke was Southern California Chapter president in 2011, vice president in 2010, treasurer in 2009 and secretary in 2008. He served on the Appraisal Institute's Leadership Development & Advisory Council from 2008-2009 and on a number of chapter committees. He joined a predecessor organization of the Appraisal Institute in 1985 and received his MAI designation in 1997.

Lienke has been owner of Hampstead Appraisal Company in Los Angeles since 1984. He has been involved in the real estate valuation profession for 28 years.

He is married and has two adult daughters.
