San Diego's Trevor Hubbard Honored as Appraisal Institute's 'Volunteer of Distinction'

CHICAGO (Oct. 3, 2012) – Trevor Hubbard, MAI, SRA, of San Diego was recognized today as the Appraisal Institute's October "Volunteer of Distinction" for Region VII.

The Appraisal Institute is the nation's largest professional association of real estate appraisers; Region VII includes Arizona, Hawaii, Southern California and Southern Nevada. Hubbard is a member of the San Diego Chapter.

"Trevor Hubbard is an excellent ambassador for the Appraisal Institute," said Appraisal Institute President Sara W. Stephens, MAI. "We're privileged to have members like Trevor who actively contribute to the real estate valuation profession and to their local communities every day."

Hubbard serves on the Leadership Development and Advisory Council, and received the 2012 William T. Anglyn Award for his exemplary contribution to the event. He was also chair of the Associate Member Guidance Group. He is on the Board of Directors of the San Diego Chapter, and serves as alternate regional representative. He served on the Technology Committee from 2007-2010. He became a member of the Appraisal Institute in 2006 and received his MAI and SRA designations in 2010.

He has been an appraiser and consultant at Jones, Roach & Caringella, Inc. since 2005, and has been involved in the real estate valuation profession for seven years.

He earned a master's degree in real estate from the University of San Diego and a bachelor's degree in business administration from Southern Methodist University in Dallas.
