2 ARTICLE I

3 Continuing Duty to Disclose

4 An applicant for readmission to Designated membership must truthfully answer the questions
5 related to good moral character on the application form and fully disclose and submit information
6 and documentation requested in the application. From the date of submission of the application to 7 the date of admission to designated membership, an applicant for readmission to Designated 8 membership shall immediately disclose to the Continuing Education and Readmission
9 Department circumstances and events occurring after the date of submission of the application 10 that may have a material bearing on the applicant's character.

11 The Good Moral Character Manual describes the process for considering an applicant's good 12 moral character.

13 ARTICLE II

14 Applications Requiring Readmission Review

15 If Regulation No. 4 requires a readmission review, the applicant must submit a "List of 16 Assignments" listing all assignments performed within the previous three (3) years and pay the 17 appropriate fee. A Screener selects assignments and the applicant provides copies of the 18 assignments to the Screener. The Screener interviews the applicant by phone. The Screener 19 may check with a local representative about local data.

20 After the interview the Screener's options include:

- 21 a. Issue a favorable recommendation,
- 22 b. Issue a favorable recommendation conditioned on a requirement that the applicant 23 attend courses and/or seminars and pass examinations,
- 24 c. Recommend that the applicant perform additional work and reapply for a readmission 25 review; or
- 26 d. Refer the readmission review to an Experience Committee.

27 An applicant may appeal an unfavorable Experience Committee decision by filing a timely Notice 28 of Appeal by traceable carrier with the Admissions Department within sixty (60) days after the 29 date of the notice from the Continuing Education and Readmission Department advising the 30 applicant of the unfavorable decision of an Experience Committee. If an applicant fails to file a 31 timely Notice of Appeal, the right of such applicant to appeal shall terminate, and the decision of 32 the Experience Committee shall be final.
